

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.

More power to the Chicago Tribune. In a clear, strong voice, expressive of the true American spirit, it rebukes the South-baiting contingency among the Northern newspapers and extends the hand of brotherhood to the South. The Tribune is a Republican paper, but above its partisanship shines its Americanism.

The man or newspaper, North or South, who attempts to revive the ancient quarrel between the sections is a traitor. Happily the class so described is small in numbers and circumscribed in influence. Fortunately the attitude of the Chicago Tribune expresses the attitude of the people. The war is over. It was not treachery to stand by the union. It was not treason to fight for the right of the sovereign States to secede. The valor of the blue and the gray is the glory of the nation. The two sections have been drawn closer together in common admiration of the courage and high principles of the other. The roses of fraternal love are blossoming where the iron hoof of war so rudely trod. It is a reunited country, with one flag, one day.

North and South have their problems to solve and they will work them out together in a spirit of fraternal sympathy and patience, undisturbed by the maledictions of hate and undismayed by the threats of fanatics.

The Chicago Tribune, in casting aside what might have been expected to be the restraining influence of political affiliation, has shown that it is a great national newspaper, imbued with a national spirit. It is a pleasing voice, rising above the babel of sectional murmurs and all the more pleasing because it is the representative voice of the intelligence and patriotism of the North speaking to the intelligence and patriotism of the South.

"HUMAN HEARTS."

It Will Have the Boards of the Messenger Opera House on the Opening Night, September 25.

"Human Hearts" is possibly the most successful and meritorious melodrama on the stage, and it will be shown to our play-goers on September 25th, in the Messenger Opera House.

Strong, stirring dramatic situations, thrilling climaxes, a love story of absorbing heart interest, amusing, natural and unforced comedy scenes, allied with a plot that can be followed by every body, are the really component part of a successful melodrama. Add to the above, a wealth of scenic splendor, new and intricate mechanical devices and a company of superior excellence, and the reason for the universal success of "Human Hearts" is found.

NEW WAY TO TREAT HAY FEVER.

No Stomach Dosing—Just Breathe Hyomei—Stops Sneezing and Smarting.

J. H. Hill & Son are recommending to their customers, as a cure for hay fever, Hyomei.

It is claimed for this remedy that it stops the spasmodic paroxysms of sneezing, the smarting and running of the eyes and nose, and other acute symptoms of this disease.

Many persons have been cured of Hay fever by Hyomei and its inventors profess to be able to prevent both the occurrence of the annual attacks and to arrest the progress of the disease when in the most chronic form.

Among those who have been cured by Hyomei are J. F. Forbes, chief dispatcher B. & M. R. E., McCook, Neb., who writes: "I have never had relief from any remedy for hay fever even temporarily, until I used Hyomei. I will always recommend it whenever occasion offers."

A. Hamlin, Westford, Mass., writes, "Hyomei cured me of hay fever in one week's time. I consider it a duty to tell others who suffer from this disease."

These endorsements are samples of hundreds that have been received by the manufacturers of Hyomei, but J. H. Hill & Son offer to refund the money if Hyomei does not do all that is claimed for it, is the strongest proof that can be offered as to the reliance they place upon Hyomei to cure hay fever.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Aug. 25, 1903.

Gentlemen—Some six years ago I began to have sciatica, and also a chronic case of muscular rheumatism. At times I could not work at all (my business being baggage master on Southern R. R.). For days and weeks at a time I could not work. My suffering was intense. Physicians treated me, without permanent relief, however. Tried a number of advertised remedies without permanent benefit. Finally I tried "RHEUMACIDE." It did the work, and I have had excellent health for three years. I can conscientiously say that all rheumatism should use "RHEUMACIDE," for it is by far the best remedy.
